

Phurda 23rd

Thursday 23rd
Made out bill for B.S. Expect it to be reduced a little. Do not remember I have got any thing to day. I guess it was to day the same old story, Whig & back and forth all. Well have to tell Will of man I expect him Saturday.
I think to day was a fine day. The Sullivan girls now live at 104th St.
23rd Street. Belle has never designed to answer my letter although she requested me urgently to write her. However I was sensibly enough not to expect any different so I am not disappointed. Frank stomach not now having much to do visit Brother daily and write more occasionally very ridiculous entry. Made out - well I send that.

Friday 24th -

Bill amounts to $8. This is a letter showing their last week. In evening put on night duty. Miss B & Amy were... so much for next week. Sent out to hunt up biography of Selma L. Leslie decided to Frank Leslie's home in 5th Avenue. Learned nothing there, then to deceased's home in 63rd street. Saw a rather nice looking woman there who gave me a few facts. To Office. Then around the station. Saw two young ruffians fighting corner of Pearl and Chatham streets. Felt as much as cited as if I myself were in the fight. To Office. Then out to a fire which I covered with difficulty. To 67th street. Used & occupy.

Saturday 25th

Saturday 28 - Breakfasted at Aunt Mary's. Frank likes his place at Reilly's very much, (he has his own place that is all. I have not paid Auntie any thing in a long time.
 Little Sam home and not well. Little fellow has been quite sick. Mary says last evening at Aunt Mary's. Myself down to office, helping Preston to write when Will Ogorman called. Will and I to Brooklyn. Picked up Willard. Then to Bath via Port Hamilton. Via Port Hamilton comes water and no pleasure at crossed by way of beach. Some little difficulty in sitting across the long distance to get my feet wet. In coming to Farnwell's where Willie beat me at Willard. The usual crowd of empty things. Then home to see to bed.

Sunday 26

Willie and myself and Miss up in supper food time. We passed the day very quietly, Willie and I chatted considerably. We walked and talked. Arrival of Brashear with the papers. Reading them. Dinner. In evening played poker. A paper contest. We had quite an enjoyable evening. Willie slept last night & tonight with me. We had a short game of ball during day. Don't remember any boys to have been down here. Revolve next door turned up once or twice. They had no order as yet. Papa feeling well but bothered by his business, which seems to be bad. Have my washing done by Mrs. O'Brien. Much harder than when in Germany.

Willie & Gorman being here I got up earlier than I otherwise would have done. We left house about 6 by way of beach. Some difficulty in getting across ditches although tide low. Willie across easily but I not - very short a little. Willie went down up. Saw him off at train & I set depot. When in office, he went out to hunt up biographies of his dead men. G. A. de Ruyter & J. H. Johnston. He got 9 got. Johnston's brother wished nothing said about letter. So arranged there. Then to Parker Mary Auntie & Frank. Got there, then to office. Looked around there. Then to 64 1/2 St. Half way up Quincey St. as companion. We promised each other to meet there.

July 20 - Office. Got nothing. Helped Pam Preston to write. Then dined with him. Had a hearty dinner. First time in New York for a long time. Reason because I could not help it. Bought Clippings, also from Gabe to find out about Jimmy Willie Edman. Walked with Preston. Then to Paul Theatre. Long time since I was to theatre before. Saw Alice Cunningham and William Howard Ingeard in "Sweethearts". Impassioned, & latter and "Mr. & Mrs. Peter White". Alice Cunningham - Very pretty and nice. In act scene looked very much like Mary Anderson who is very nice private person with her mother.
Then to Broadway to home stuff. To hotel where lived me. Then to Harlem.
Took a taxi to home stuff.

This Page is not nice looking. Not extra good writing. To office where I got nothing for to day but an assignment for to morrow - Reception Day. Stayed at office until evening when I started for Bath via Port Hamilton. By economy I have enough to get through the week. Do not have to borrow this week thank goodness. May at Bath also Papa. May had been to Dennis Barnes reception. A beautiful night. And a nice walk home from Port Hamilton. I sat up late doing nothing. Then and again I say to myself John must not move but still John does snore. As Aunt Mary says. Irresolute John my clothes in sad condition. Particularly coat - which is at it best a little better than being seen looking. My shirt need a new garment. Saw Brothers in Portland St.

day 3121

Sept 11 or 12. My clothing thoroughly dried. Yet put them on. Took a cat away; singing and imperfect merrill with me and went down town. Bright dramatic Music and even vindictive as usual. Looped at office all day with no good result.
Died in evening by fire some place & amusement to go to but could not.
Theatricals very good. Rained all day long. Towards evening a mass. Found 75 shipped. Young prices up. Homed with the students. Followed well. I tried to get a good gathering to myself. I was a little nervous to go day. I have had not a little of this.

June Saturday 1881 1881
Hardest rain yet. Up about 9. Left Aunt Mary's after 12. Carried with me a small and almost useless umbrella. Felt unwell in morning. At office. Wished to go home but at 3 p.m. an assassin box 5 1/2 which I knew would turn out to be no good, and it did. The man was in West 54th St; a meeting of an office club at home and I did while I was walking in 54th St. Back to office. Then to the Post-Remondin went to right. Then to office. In first time in week.
Felt as if something terrible. Felt cold thrill. Mary's hand. The
