

December, Nov.

MONDAY, 30, 12th

1887.

Sunshine night straight along. Left Bath. Can't say when. Not very early I am afraid. Tried to get tickets for L. & N. Thompson. Could not. Bought tickets for Manchester. Mazie saw her in Chimney Walk in the evening at Broadway theatre. Quite artistic representation by Januscher. Rest poor with possibly exception in side scenes. To the wife. Saw Mazie home. She is not a happy girl and is too odd for me. Under.

Tuesday 13th

Think I attended Court in time. Any way toward evening to Herald, Howard in my arms. Then to O'Brien's. Saw the 173's and Mazie. The last named and self to Eagle Theatre to enjoy Robinson Crusoe by Lydia Thompson & troupe. Saw me back. Enjoyed a punch and a cat and a smoke. Had a detestable ride to Harlow in Green cars. Stayed too much at Aunt Mary's where I am always warmly welcomed.

Wednesday 14th

Have full at Court to day. Wrote much matter for paper but of it not used. As for my pains: no not even that. Wrote till 8. Then to Wallace's. Took in a shame from falling. Montague the hero. To Harlow afterwards. Difficulty in getting in.

Thursday 15th

Met Judge & woman at 10 o'clock. Together we saw performance for benefit of St. John's. Very good. Others tiresome. Clara Morris, James O'Neil, Della Mary, Anderson in specialties. Some to lecture. Myself to Office then to Bath. Dined by dressing Mary Rob home also and at Harlow.

Friday TUESDAY, 31, 16th

Drew my extensive $10.70. Arrived at Court late. Hennessy gone but saw Brewer & he and this treated. Sent Brewer $1. Wrote up part of matter in case part in schedule. With Mazie in evening to see Mr. O'Brien's secret, a senseless play with good acting. Captain O'Neil, Rose, Pagan & Sara Jewett good. Walked home with Mazie. Was late in leaving her. To Aunt Mary's.

Saturday 17th

Had late breakfast at Aunt Mary's. Left before Mary Rob did. To Wallace's with Mazie. Had fine performance. The play Duke of Shom. Neither of us particularly interested. Second time I saw it. Back with Mazie to O'Brien's. Stayed awhile. Then to Herald. In evening saw Mary and the lady of Lyons. First class routine. Spent money in money, food. Slept at Aunt Mary's. Mazie & Mary.

Sunday 18th

Wrote at Aunt Mary's. Arrived at Court shortly after nine. Found plenty to do though no long cases. Wrote Brewer's copy. In Bath by 4 & 1/2. During day Philip & L. B. Smoker called. I saw W. & read. Papa home. He is in pretty good spirits. Mary Rob expected. I did not come. Pleasant day though trifling chilly and decidedly windy. Sawing much. To bed at 10.

Monday 19th

Slept till 12 1/2. Good lord. Late to Court. In time to see Brewer & Hennessy. Tried to raise $5. for my watch & saddle. Wrote terms from Criminal & Civil Courts. Sent communication to Rome. To the trials. Pled bill to Aunt Mary. Cold journey home by way of St. Hamilton. Arrive by 10. To bed.

Tuesday 20th

Up shortly after 8. Compare quiet day. Once more quit smoking for a time. Have smoked not much. Since before election. Brewer paid me that $1 yesterday. We've piano here. Trying to fix up things a little in my room. To Court at 10. To bed at 10. To bed at 10.

Wednesday 21st

To day I pawned my gold watch for $10. I received $6. Have not through a novel experience. The shoes I wear are terrible looking & disagreeable. I don't write what came up. To Herald office & to Bath. Arrive at 10 1/2. Room? Sitting down.

Thursday 22nd

To Bath for some cases. By way of St. Hamilton I believe. Bought pair of shoes, very much needed. As the price. Mazie is 22. To day I think I had letter from Mazie. She has arrived safely home and is contented. Met Pope at Court. He loaned me $100. Nothing at Court. Dined with Brewer at Harlow. Then to Harlow. Arrive at 10. To bed at 10.

Friday 23rd

Breakfast. By boat to Harlow. Salary $11.70 - cut again. Met Pope at 10. To St. Bath. Arrive at 10. To Court where there was one or two cases. Brewer paid $100. To see the Harlow's. Met by Sothern at Bath. Mazie & Mary. Very bright performance. Sothern & Della & Geo. Holland the to Harlow. Wrote over a letter to Harlow. Then wrote article to Harlow. Arrive at 10. To bed at 10. To bed at 10.
