

Date: March Fri MAY Bills Payable day 15th 1878. $ Cts

Felt upset all day. Playing with Agnes in morning. Think I met with Uncle's displeasure which I greatly regret. To N. Y. with George. To office. Heard something about Bayard I never could believe. Wrote up suicide of man in Astor House. Recd. $6. Borrowed $1 from George. Paid Hamilton $112. Porke paid me 50 cents. Undecided what to do in evening. Saw Owen in Open Shingle & the Victims.

Saturday 16th

Was to have left Harlem very early. Did not. After my wash. Mary Rob at Aunt Mary's. To Washington Market. Bought turkey. Met George at Fulton Ferry. To Park Theatre. Saw Evangeline. George did not like it much. A great crowd present. Eat afterwards & were shaved. To Bath. Played billiards at Funnell's. Played poker at home.

Sunday 17th

Well of course it rained, and neither Belle or Pauline came. Brasher did. George and I amused ourselves as best we could during the day. We broke Brasher's umbrella among other things. In the evening we played cards until 12 o'clock. Wrote a letter to Miss Moorhead. My turkey went well. Papa to N. Y. & back. Was not able to attend to anything today. To bed late.

Monday 18th

On Saturday recd. letters from Magie & Miss Moorhead. Say as usual. George & Bayard up before me. Then myself at last moment up with a wash. To dummy half dressed &c. To Papa's office. Paid George $200. Signed some papers & was sworn. Then to Bath. At Funnell's played billiards & lost almost a dollar. To our house. Neither Papa nor Mary home. Wrote looked over papers &c. Pated letter to Miss Moorhead today. Expected a tidal wave. It did not come. The night was lovely. Turned into bed about 1. Fire gave out: or I might have been cold.

Tues ~~RECEIVABLE~~ day 19th

To the office as I believe & received an assignment. Forget what it was. No I remember: a meeting of yachtsmen at Hoffman house. Found the work of an easy kind. Intended to go somewhere tonight - but was thus prevented. Yesterday I brought to town $30 that I had saved. Intended to get clothes shoes &c with it. We shall see if I do so. I dare say the money will run from me and I shall not have anything at all to show for it.

Wednesday 20th

Left Harlem about 1. To office where loafed some time. Before to rain I believe which hurried me to Newark as George had written to me asking me to come. Found Newark folks seated around table, supper over. Aunt Sue prepared a nice little supper. Uncle out. Sads not very well. Out with the boys. We played billiards. For a wonder I did not lose a single game. We chatted. Back to house & soon after to bed.

Thursday 21st

Uncle had next to nothing to say to me. Auntie kind. Talking with Will & George. Left Newark about 11. To office. Made out bill $260. How's that? Sent out to find about Father Mr. Namora and his persecutors. Worked hard but did not get a line printed. In evening to hear Grand Italian Opera at Booth's. The opera. Band: The star Marie Roze. Was not amused. Liked only one or two things. Marie Roze a bright looking woman; triple stent.

Friday 22nd

Left Auntie's late. Arrived at office about 3. Sent out to hunt up information in connection with John J. Savage's clerkship. Then sent to Ferrytown on bank failure. Did the work poorly. Nothing however said. Got out of a bad little scrape nicely. Left office after 5. Returned about 1. Wrote copy up in cars. Had work to do tomorrow.

Saturday 23rd

Dressed after 10. Left Auntie's an hour or two later. Sent to find out about a ship wrecked crew. Rowed from Battery to the Brig on which crew: then back, not on the water (in row boat) since last summer. Got but little. In evening, said Alice Bates & co. in Barbe Bly at Bowen Park Theatre. Smoking. To office. Next to the
