

Date Wednesday, April AUGUST Bills Payable 10th 1878 Cts.

Rain! Rain! No office for me to day. Heard George wanted to see me. So by many cars to Newark. Arrived out there in time for supper. Saw George and Willie. The little girls Agnes & Jennie Russell. Bot all night. Uncle in good humor at some thing or other. George Will & I playing poker. I lost 33 cent after a whole night's play. Inexpensive fun. Then we danced. In the midst of our fun (12 1/2 o'clock) Uncle popped in and we subsided. Then to bed. In early part of evening looking for a magazine.

Thursday 11th

In from Newark. At office in time. Made out bill for $11. Got $9. Disagreeable afternoon. Head full of a special article. There is to be to night an entertainment given to Lunatics in Newark & I thought I should write a column about it. Towards evening gave up idea. Meighan put a damper to my enthusiasm. In the evening enjoyed an expensive supper. To the Standard Theatre. Saw Maggie Mitchell in Little Banquet. Stupid play, childish. Maggie Mitchell very good as usual.

Friday 12th

Late at Herald office. George had been there & left a note. Met him at Continental Hotel restaurant. Together we visited the Sullivans. Belle kept us a long time waiting. Pauline did not show up until young Cuban came in. We passed a pleasant time. Arriving to my dress I felt ashamed! Dear me! George to Newark. Myself to Herald. Then to the Union Square theatre to see Celebrated Case. Enjoyed it much. To Harlem on train. To bed by 12 1/4.

Saturday 13th

To the office about 2. Paid for week's washing. Nothing given me. Anyway, a stupid day. In the evening ~~paid~~ ^{colored} Conran $2. Paid Lily the $2 I owed him. To see seller. Enjoyed the performance greatly. Great sleight of hand. Some things truly marvellous. Afterwards to Harlem by train. Found folks up & sitting in dining room. Sat chatted & passed away the time. Frank fresh. Young girl up stairs sick again.

Sunday RECEIVABLES 14th

Left bed about 11. Night before said "I'll be at Bath by 11." Owing to arrival of Jim De Cue went without breakfast. Aunt Mary never proposed breakfast although I sat in the dining room for an hour. When I left they were all seated at the dinner table - De Cue included. Said Auntie innocently "Won't you have a cup of tea?" "No thank you" said I "I've had enough already." Looking in Italy for an eating house. Found not one. Moses with me in search of the promised meal. To Fulton ferry. At a restaurant there Moses & myself eat much. It was then 3. Nothing to eat until then. To Bath by way of St. Hamilton. Open car. Walked across. Saw Annie Waters. She was looking well. A magnificent day. Brasher at our house. Received letters from Vollicet Davis. In evening played poker. I lost. Brasher to Brooklyn. Moses parted with me at Fulton Ferry. Paid Aunt Mary $5. To bed late. Fine moonlight night.

Monday 15th

Shoes badly worn. They look terrible at least I think so. Breakfast 11. Mary W 12 1/2 dunning. I left about 2 1/2. Walked to St. Hamilton. Talked to Annie Waters on way over. To office. Trying to escape Meighan's notice. Arrived about 6 at office. Had very light supper. In evening to Standard Theatre. Saw Maggie Mitchell in Pearl of Gany. Liked her of course. The character is not exactly suited to her. The support was poor. To Harlem by steam a favorite mode of mine now. The ride in those 3rd ave. cars at night is very disagreeable. Arrived out. Mary & Brasher at the house. To bed after snoring a little.

Tuesday 16th

Used everything in way of clothes. No money. Ha ha. No work. Ho ho! Aunt Mary with unsatisfactory explanation of last Sunday's conduct. Mary Rob spent day & night at Harlem. To office early. Spent the day there. Nothing given me. Tom Preston & self chinning. Meated him to supper & then took him to Booth's Theatre where we saw the famous Exiles. The play an interesting one; the players almost sticks with me or two exceptions. The Boston company Thompson & Hill's played in it. To office with Ann. We ordered eat uplets, drank vodka water & said adieu.
