

Date, Saturday Cash Account SEPTEMBER, 19th cts. cts.

Up late near 11. On 12 49 train to 42nd St. Met George O'Connell at Gilman's. He to see Fechter as Oberkeizer. Myself walked from 30th St. to Essex Market. Three or four cases there thence to Jefferson where quite a number of cases. Nice day though trifle damp. Behine walked down to office. Wrote quite a lot of cases. In the evening, to see Edwin Booth in Henry VIII & Taming of a Shrew. Did not greatly enjoy either. First time saw Booth though face familiar.

Sunday 20th

Awake early before Auntie got up. Rose by 7 1/2. Breakfasted. Auntie lost and found again $2. Dull sort of morning. By 3³⁰ Ave cars to 8th St. thence to Jefferson Market Court. Did not go to Essex. Only two matches could I write. No decent cases at all. Filled with Schoemaker of Times & with Byrnes of Express. Left Court about 12 arrived there after 9. To Donald Office. Looked over papers. Filled with Meyhan. Wrote for him an explanation of a case Kitts vs Rowley that came up in Jefferson Court a week or so ago. Kitts has been running to office to have a connection inserted. Bundled together the Sun & Herald of the week & started for Bath. Raining. Pie & coffee at saloon. Arrived at dummy station about 3 1/2. No train until 5. A nice wait. Met a fresh young man bound for Sweet's at Bath with whom I conversed and drank beer which I dared not do. Ereeting from Mrs. Brady who called me Johnnie. Muddy walking home. Brother & rest of our family here. All well. Eat very light supper. Wrote week's events in diary. Paid Aunt Mary $4 on Sat. morning. Am to try not to borrow much more. Certainly not to repeat last week's experience in a hurry. Letter from Miss Moorhead & Maggie awaiting me at Bath. Sat up late answering former. Am to write to latter to morrow. Bath is truly a desolate place yet I like to come down at least once a week although God knows not for the welcome which is not. Our family not noted for kindness to each other.

Monday 21st

In on 12.37 dummy. Does not do like in the 57th St. days to leave Bath any later. To the Courts is rather good season. Met Brother in a cogan skin not long up & touched his hand first time in months. Not much chance of our being great again. Wrote & posted letter to Miss Moorhead. Thought the superscription was wrong but it turned out to be all right. Fined riding in 3³⁰ Ave. cars to and from Harlem disagreeable. Occasionally use the Courts. Nothing of much account except that I am running down in pocket. D-d string.

Tuesday 22nd

Either last night or to night saw Fechter in No Thoroughfare as Oberkeizer. Liked it much better than his Monte Christo. George O'Connell likes it less. Guess I went some place else. Forget where. Met Tom Hall Jnr. Cannana & Headman's serve where about this time. All lively and kidding. Cold and pleasant days are succeeding the other. Uncle Phil's birthday about this time. Still carrying around me a letter to Aunt Jim which I wrote weeks ago. Sensible.

Wednesday 23rd

To Newark with George. Passed a quiet evening. Uncle tired out and to bed early with out his usual little table talk. Behine George called for me at office. Work at Courts not brisk. I keep much better court than I did when at 57th St. listening to George chiming & Willie and Auntie playing. At very heartily having had nothing since leaving Harlem. Reason no money to throw away.

Thursday 24th

Made out bill for $20. Doing well. To see Hamlet by Fechter. First time I saw a male make aught interesting out of Shakespear. Support poor. Performance at Bowery Theatre. House only 1/3 or less full. Came in from Newark with George. He loaned me 75 cents which I repay on Saturday a cold day. Overcast heavy.

Friday 25th

Got the $20. On night duty. Had made up mind to see Fechter in Bay Binn but no go. Raining night as far as I remember. Did not go to any of the police stations. The time passed quickly owing to my help in Austin with his work. Sent friend with $3 making $342 all told. Doing amply well after a period of light being.
