

October, June

Thursday MONDAY, 28th

1897.

This week I shall pass most of in the city as I desire to make some money. Had to borrow 25 cents more from Nesbitt lately; also $2 from T. Hamilton + $2 from Genl. Millen. Obtained a job to day night; an night duty, $4 made. To supper with Fitzpatrick; later on to coffee house meal. Bought Sun and retired at Harris about 4 in morning.

Friday 29th

To Papa's office. Saw Papa. With 30 cents in pocket to Herald, Recd. my week's earnings, $12.70. To Prospect Park grounds. Our club was where played but did not. Played a while at fives. A pleasant day. To Herald office. Stayed around till late but there was nothing gained thereby. Paid Tom Hamilton $10. Gave him also Genl. Millen $2. By tomorrow I'll have just $12 left. Have to borrow of some one else.

Saturday 30th

Paid Mrs. Badger $6 for board to Wednesday 27th. To ^{Papa's} office. Shaved + boot blacked. To Court. Something of mine special in to day's Herald. Had hard work finding copy of Herald. Only small items at Court. Spent 2 hours in Civil Court opposite. To Herald office. Nothing to do. Rich revelations in to day's papers about O'Kelly of the Herald. Been playing double husband. Stayed around office till quite late. Paid Nesbitt $150 + recd. $2.00 from Preston.

July

Sunday TUESDAY, 29th 1st

Awoke at an early hour; about 5. Away from house by six. In time to be caught in heavy thunder shower. It lasted about 1 + a half hours. During heaviest part I stayed under cover. Breakfasted at Engman's. Met sawey waiter who looked at my newspapers without an if you please. I was brief with him. Bought package cigarettes. $1.4. Arrived at Court 9. Through by 10. Nothing there. To Herald office then to Bath on 12 1/2 dunning. In time for dinner: first time at home in months. Mr. + Mrs. O'Brien spent the day here. No other visitors except strangers on business with Papa. Saw couple acting shamefully in Bennett's field; some party from the city. Heavy thunder storm in evening. Papa unwell and Mary unhappy. O'Brien gave me some cigars. Looking dirty all day long.

Monday 2nd

Up about 7 1/2. Picking cherries. Great difficulty about my washing in Bath. Third week my things have gone ashay, shirt buttonless and collarless. Had to wait till I had another collar ironed. Aunt Mary Sam + Thos. stayed at Bath all day + night. Dada also. To the city late carrying cherries to Mrs. Harris. To Court by 4. Rowin. Schwaib. Thiv. Schwaib + a man named Maher. Brewer not at Court. Wilems. To office. Nothing there. To Bath on 8 dunning.

Tuesday WEDNESDAY, 30th 3rd

Bid Auntie and the children good by. Borrowed a dollar from Papa and two dollars from Sawyer Nesbitt. Arrived in better season at Court. No Brewer he has probably gone on a vacation. To Herald office where I loafed around vainly hoping to get something to do. Wrote several stories for Herald. Manifolded number for Brewer. Saw Miss E. Ledtberg about this time. Recd. letter from Aunt Jim with one inclosed for Mrs. Tobin. We are having cool weather. Great thunder shower which I was luckily not in. To Harris rather late. Great attempted thinking.

Wednesday 4th

Up night early. Got my breakfast ~~last~~ outside of house. My wash was delivered last evening all correct: though some things were neglected. Rather contradictory yet true. To Court. Attended to my own + Brewer's copy. Anxious to go to Bath but at 12 told to go on night duty on west side Station at 8. Terrible noise in New York from fire crackers. To Brooklyn; quieter there as no fire crackers allowed. Rather warm in city, nothing like what it should be however. To see Mrs. Galtin, Mrs. Tobin's mother, about Aunt Jim's letter. Walked to First Place from ferry. Saw the old lady, Mrs. Tobin in Newmarket. Drove to ferry. On way got cheap dinner. To New York. Had small supper. & bedtime. To the Station. Worked a great deal. Dreadful noise in city. First 9th in city: hope it's the last.
