off to the city late. Charming day. To Harlem before that shaved boat. Nice sail. My second trip up? or down? East River. Saw much to interest me. Supper at Aunt Mary's. Warm reception. By horse car to Union Square. To Wallack's. Heartily enjoyed Lydia Thompson's troupe in Robinian Crusoe. Drove my best coat - lost ribbon off hat. Sat out for near 1/2 day office. To Harlem. Sleeping in Aunt Mary's.

Sunday 30th

Nice breakfast. Down to Court later than if from Bath. Nothing there. Hastened to Bath via St. Hamilton. No dinner. Brasher here in afternoon. Left before supper. Very ceremonious with me. I oblivious of himself. Spent entire evening with Maggie. She feeling less spirited owing to kind treatment by Papa & Mary. A very pleasant day. Elevated R.R. again today. Enjoyed visit to Harlem.

Saw Ada D'as in Belt. In 59th St. Bright eye nice looking unpleasant movement of mouth. Bus Becknap called & spent evg. Very nice day. Wrote nothing to day.

Thursday 4th

Believe Brewer was at Court to day. So not know if mentioned it before but Hornet is but Caper at Fumell's. Terrible night. Wont I ever was out in 2 do believe. To see Maggie. Stayed there quite a while. Miss Robinson being in it some in West of St. as well as elsewhere. On me a night. Had an umbrella but drenched through & through. Went fine or six lines of horse cars. Brandy & ophi stuns by myself. Home (Harlem) lat' wet.

Fri SATURDAY, 14th day 5th

Drew my salary $10.70. I'd like to have more but that would mean late hours and stopping in the city. Brewer about this time away for several days in account of chills. Wrote to Uncle William sometime about this asking permission for Willie to visit me. ^{Frank is also with Roman Walters} invited. I need permission from the doctor and the boys are coming.

Saturday 6th

Saw Maggie Mitchell in Mifson. A crowded house at Brooklyn Park. I enjoyed the piece. I always enjoy acting if I have the least merit in it. Mitchell's acting is not at all sensational but quite pleasing. But oh Lord the support. Of the worst kind almost. Did not go to Court. Met Papa in Brooklyn. Down to Bath. Found Frank Willie & Brasher there. Brasher at Sweet's. My cousin & I cut up. Slept together. Wrote a long shade.

Sunday 7th

To Court. Luckily nothing up. With Hennessy looking for a lamp. Stopped about 57th St. We did not find any. Together by Elevated R.R. In Brooklyn I tramped around till I found a store. Did not pick exactly what I wanted. By way St. Ann's. Spent the day with the boys. In the morning afternoon we played ball in the evening we went to Fumell's and played billiards. We came back & enjoyed a night.
