

November, July Saturday, ~~MONDAY~~ 21st

1897.

Slept in spare room. Up in time for breakfast. Drove much + milk. Talked with the boys then with Willie to Morrissey R. R. I wished to go that way as I had not been on it often and as I wished to see how dried + other things had changed in years. Found some things changed found others familiar. To Herald's office. Asked Mr. McI. when what time I got there in morning + when in afternoon. Don't think I'll go to office so often in middle of the day. Nice day though yesterday still threatening rain and damp. Disagreeable weather this past week + haven't felt dry the whole week; that is my clothes have been. Still Brewer late at Court myself a little late. Only one thing worth writing + that rather mixed. Caught 7 dunnies. Bought 7 semi cigars for a quarter. All gone before I retired. Something to eat before to Bath. Paid Harris $5 all I owed her. She wanted $7 including what I owe Harris for a hairbrush. I told her I'd stick to the hammock part + convinced her I owed her only 5. She said she'd forget. She was a little sharp that way with many too. Saw Pauline. Heard Rob. Mrs. + Mrs. Hazard and Dan + Mauns Kelly. Myself + last time tried to give ladies now but O'Brien's boat-leaking. Spent some time in stop conversing with Pauline. Received long + aff. letter from Maria. She is in Lancaster & in good health. My room in great disorder. Saw Miss Bathurst and Marie + Georgia. Put on undershirts lately after being without for weeks.
