

October, June

Sun MONDAY, 14th day 3rd

1897.

More warm weather. Prospering freely. Yesterday visited Wash woman and paid her 81. She brought the clothes back on Tuesday last. She not only washed them, but mended and attended to them. She is a good old soul apparently, but then I thought well of that other woman! Up about 9. Breakfasted at Harris. Paid her $3.50 yesterday to Court. attended to my own and Brewer's copy. Nothing much. Beer. To Herald Office. To Sandy Spencers. Then to Bath Fuller, a Mrs. Rogers, and Sam Solomon visited us. Mrs. Williams called also Marie. I did not see the former. Rained in the afternoon & evening. Parties looking out the houses. Mary & Papa out in the evening. Spent some time talking to Ellen and Willie. Papa & myself did not have anything to say to each other. Mary and I had a glimpse about everything. We went to bed quite late.

Monday 4th

Left Bath by 147 dunny. Looking and feeling dirty. Picked up some items for the paper. When I left Bath I had money. I thought it would do me rest of week but I became extravagant and by night I had nothing left or very little. To the Herald and stayed there. Wrote to J.H. and to Aunt Jim Left office late and brought up at Harris' after 12. Paid the newsboys $4.00: a debt I was long wishing to be rid of. He was quite good natured about it. Paid Mary Robt the $300 I owed her. It is such a relief to know you owe not.

TUESDAY, 15.

Came down to breakfast after 9. I went to Papa's Office. He was not there. I stayed there some time. Rain and cool weather. First we had mighty warm weather then it was cool and chilly; then warm again and now it is cool and chilly once more. Carried an umbrella. Six Court articles. I made up my mind to call upon the Sullivans. Went to Spencers and ate; when coming out met Fitzpatrick so back again. Then it was too late to call. Stayed in the office and then to Harris.

Wednesday 6th

Wrote to Mary Harrison. Rained very hard. Rained very hard early this morning while I was in bed. Cloudy and rainy most of the day. Very uncomfortable weather. Borrowed fifty cents last night and $1.00 today. Dinet at Court. In the evening called to see the Sullivans at 123 East 18th. They had moved. I did I'd find them at No. 12 same street. Went to 12 East 18th: it was a stable; and to 12 West 18th which was, nothing leaving no existence. Walked up and down 6th Avenue. Then to office. Stayed there only a short time. To Harris rather early.

Thursday 7th

To Court. To Herald office. Had appointed twice M.H. at Papa's Office. Was to have been there at 5 1/2 was there 6 1/2. To her house 326 Clermont Avenue. all dark. Walked around Brooklyn a little. Listened ~~WEDNESDAY, 16~~ to two English street speakers praising their pills and powders. To Harris' Saw that lady, the sister the fair Miss Dickinson and chatted with them. Another girl has left. To bed. Rain again. Third day. This time last year was pleasant and agreeable as I remember it.

Friday 8th

Up early. Called at 326 Clermont Ave. Blank astonishment of M.H. when she opened the door. I said Is M.H. living here. Her answer was M.J. I am so glad to see you. I stayed till 11 1/2. Talked about many things. Felt badly when leaving Court. Then to office. Stayed there quite late. Long letter from Baz and about this time. Stayed around office. Nothing to do. Paid $1.00 I owed to Brewer & lent him another. Paid resit 50 cents. Had a poor dinner to day. Mm, going fast. My bill to day was $10.70. Same two & six pence. Rain once more.

Saturday 9th

Up quite early. Paid Harris $300. Intend to see Wash woman who returned my clothes which I left on Tuesday yesterday, and day before that is returned, then last two days. Did not see her. Met Joe Clark. Saw there was to be game of baseball at Prospect Park. Telegraphed to Brewer & Wood. To Park. No game except scrub. Lingered around. Then to Herald Office & to Harris.
